

EMAIL MARKETING

More visibility. Less effort.

The to-do list is long, and the teams are small – and yet visibility needs to be created, regularly and professionally.

Many hosts know how important targeted communication is – but often there is one thing lacking in everyday life: resources.

The results:

Ideas fade.

Visibility drops.

Direct bookings stay away.

FOR YOUR PROFESSIONAL START

Before the first newsletter is sent, we make sure that everything fits perfectly - technically, legally and in terms of design.

After all, a good start is the basis for sustainable success.

i-HOTEL SERVICES takes care of the complete setup.

Structured, well thought-out and with an eye for details.

So you do not have to worry about a thing.

This is included in the setup:

- Templates: (3 formats: editorial, event & image) in your corporate design
- GDPR check including double opt-in, legally compliant forms & links
- Data import from CRM / existing sources
- Initial setup of email workflows
- Recipient structure & audience logic
- 30-minutes kickoff call for strategic alignment

Your professional setup:

€949 / one-time fee
excl. VAT

We handle everything – so you can focus on what matters: your guests.

OUR SERVICES

Flexible. Cost-efficient. Measurably effective.

We take care of copywriting, design, sending and reporting. This way you save time, expand your reach and increase your direct bookings – structured, brand-compliant and GDPR-compliant.

HOW WE WORK TOGETHER

Meet Julia

As Head of Marketing at i-HOTEL SERVICES, Julia brings over 20 years of hospitality experience - most recently as Head of Marketing D-A-CH for a successful serviced apartment brand.

With her keen sense for clear communication, good design and pragmatic solutions, she ensures that your Email Marketing not only works, but also looks fantastic.

Julia is convinced: 'Brands are not created by logos - but by attitude and clear communication.'

OUR PROCESS - LEAN & EFFICIENT

Every collaboration begins with a clear understanding of goals, target groups and content. We define the strategy in a joint kickoff call - and then take care of the entire setup.

From CI-compliant design and GDPR-compliant forms to the first mailing list: We think of all the details.

The following editorial planning, content creation and support is tailored to your capacities - and grows with your requirements.

Whether you are starting out or expanding, we support the entire process - in a structured, creative and reliable manner.
